In a saucepan, heat some extra virgin olive oil and sautè the soffritto with the leek cut into thin slices; add the chopped Savoy cabbage and cook for a few minutes. Now add the minced veal and the chopped sausage, cook for few more minutes. Deglaze with the white wine and let it evaporate, then take off the heat and let it cool. In the meantime in a pot, bring the milk to a boil and using a whisk add the white roux, season with a pinch of salt and nutmeg. Now mix in the grated parmigiano cheese, the diced proscuttio and mortadella into the meat and cabbage mix. Also add the bechamel sauce mixing carefully to create a uniform filling. Line a single-portion mold with the savoy cabbage (previously steamed) and fill with the mix you prepared. Cook the pie in the oven at 180°C for twenty minutes. In the meantime, heat the Pomodorina for few minutes, using a mixer blend it to make a smooth sauce, then spread it out on the bottom of a dish. Remove the pie from the mold and place it in the center of the plate, complete with a drizzle of Pecorino cheese sauce and chopped parsley.
