In a non-stick pan, melt the grated parmigiano reggiano cheese, then, when it is still hot, shape it on top of a cup to obtain a basket-shaped wafer; repeat the operation until you have made six. Meanwhile in boiling salted water cook the troccoli pasta until al dente. In a saucepan, heat a little extra virgin olive oil and brown the diced lard; add the almond sauce with some liquids from the Datterini tomatoes. Season with salt and pepper. At this point, drain the troccoli and toss in the prepared sauce, adding a little water, add in some grated Parmigiano Reggiano cheese. Transfer the troccoli into the parmesan basket and garnish with the yellow datterini tomatoes, toasted almonds and a sprinkle of black pepper.
